09.45 - 11.00 Cressida Pryor, CIMI, Infant Mental Health Therapist and Trauma Specialist

❖ The Psychology of Birth Trauma in the Baby Massage Class

This presentation will explore the nature of birth trauma and whether it is different to other post traumatic stress disorders. Cressida will explain what the predisposing factors are, what might precipitate it and how the effects are often maintained. This talk will explore the effects of birth trauma on the attachment relationship and consider how our role as infant massage instructors might help.

11.00 - 11.30 Mid morning refreshments.

11.30 - 12.30 Caroline Roberts - International Trainer

❖ IAIM - Infant Massage Stroke Review

Please bring your doll to enable you to fully participate and benefit from this valuable review of our teaching programme - (Open to members only - CPD points awarded)

12.30 - 1.45 Lunch (meat and vegetarian options available)

1.45 - 3.00 Elizabeth Atter, MCSP, HPCR

❖ TOUCH TO TEACH

The aims of this talk are to consider massage and positioning of infants in order to facilitate development for sensory-motor learning and to assist those babies born with different needs to reach their potential. A variety of different conditions will be considered from prematurity to developmental delay, genetic and neurological conditions and moulded baby syndrome. There will be time given to discuss particular issues and concerns.
